WHAT IS MUNCH?

Munch, originally from Hungary, has quickly emerged as the fastest-growing food-saving app in Central Eastern Europe with over 1,500,000 downloads and more than 3,0000 food establishments partnering with us.

Why should you join Munch?

We empower food establishments to transform their surplus into profit while attracting new customers and combating food waste. Also, your Munch customers will likely return to make purchases of your full priced products.

How does the app work?

Using Munch is incredibly user-friendly with no manual intervention needed. Specify the remaining package quantities (which can even be automated) and hand items over to customers. Every month, we'll send you a report on your earnings and transfer your income.

Okay, but what does it cost?

We don't require any upfront payments. Our partnership has no strings attached; you can discontinue it at any time. We only request a performance-based success fee plus VAT on the packages you sell and a monthly marketing fee of 1990 Ft per active store unit.
